"We are honored to be ranked amongst other growing private companies on this exclusive list by the well respected Los Angeles Business Journal. Maintaining a positive reputation locally and nationally is a vote of achievement to our service and brand."

"Growing a company is the easy part, states Rozbruch. But to grow and deliver results for your customers for the last 13 years AND have "happy" clients in the end, refer their friends and family to you is quite another thing, as evidenced by some of the large national tax problem resolution companies either being shut down by regulators or having to file for bankruptcy protection from creditors".

Michael Rozbruch and Brian Compton, President of Tax Resolution Services joined their fellow award winners at the 2011 LABJ Fastest Growing Private Companies reception, which was held Thursday, November 16th, at the Petersen Automotive Museum in Los Angeles.
