Tax Resolution Services, Leading Tax Resolution Firm Touts Trust

Tax Resolution Services, Co. Founder and CEO Michael Rozbruch featured in recent San Fernando Valley Business Journal for his service-focused leadership.

Encino, CA - November 2011— The November 21st-December 4th issue of the San Fernando Valley Business Journal featured Tax Resolution Services, Co. Founder and CEO, Michael Rozbruch in an article by Judy Temes titled: Touting Trust - Tax Resolution Services CEO Michael Rozbruch isn't out to scare. The San Fernando Valley Business Journal is an award-winning publication that prints top company lists, breaking business stories, deals, and executive profiles. The recent article proves that nice guys DON'T finish last - instead they rise to the top by being service-focused and doing the right thing. Rozbruch's leadership and distinct approach to tackling tax problem resolution has continuously differentiated his firm from the other national firms in the tax resolution industry - an industry that has been "black eyed" by some unethical players.

The article talks about how some of Tax Resolution Services, Co.(TRS) competitors have given the industry a bad reputation by using marketing scare tactics, tapping into consumer fears, and taking clients on that didn't qualify for their services to obtain money even when there wasn't staff to service the customers adequately. Many of these competitors have been, and are, getting eliminated and regulations are being put into place to protect the ethical players.

Rozbruch's firm has never grown for the sake of growing, instead employing a "do the right thing" approach that has won his firm the reputation of being the "most credible firm offering incredible results." The company has been an accredited member of the Better Business Bureau since it's founding and has received the highest BBB rating of any national firm. This April, Michael Rozbruch took his consumer advocacy a step further, founding the Tax Problem Resolution Services Coalition, an industry coalition of ethical tax problem resolvers (including his competition) dedicated to the eradication of tax relief scams, stopping unscrupulous firms and protecting consumers.

"Since starting my tax relief firm in 1998, we promoted our services ONLY to the degree in which we could support the clients coming in the door, focusing on customer service first," said Michael Rozbruch, Founder and CEO of Tax Resolution Services, Co. "It may not have been the fastest approach, but it was the most ethical approach. While some of the competition in the tax resolution industry grew quickly with big media buys promising unrealistic results to get a lot of clients then failing to deliver, TRS has grown at a healthy pace, earning us the best reputation in the industry."

In related news the Los Angeles Business Journal named Tax Resolution Services one of the 'Fastest Growing Private Companies' in the Los Angeles area. The list of companies was announced November 21st coinciding with the published SFVBJ article.
