The Nation's Leading Tax Negotiation and Mediation Firm

Knowledge Is Power When Selecting a Tax Resolution Firm

Tax Resolution Services, Co. advises consumers with tax debt problems to select a firm who is willing to educate, as this is a sign of credibility and genuine expertise.

Encino, CA—For consumers owing back taxes or other tax debt matters, facing the IRS alone is a daunting prospect. The tax laws are confusing, and the best option for resolving a particular tax delinquency problem is not always apparent. Seeking the help of a certified tax resolution specialist or tax attorney to obtain tax debt relief can be a good idea, but finding the right tax relief professional amid the clamor of advertising and big promises can be equally intimidating.

“The tax resolution industry has suffered negative buzz recently due to some high-visibility tax relief firms who made deceptive advertising claims and took advantage of consumers” acknowledges Michael Rozbruch, founder and CEO of Tax Resolution Services, Co. (TRS), the nation’s leading experts in tax negotiation and mediation®. Not all tax problem resolution firms are created equal. One of the best ways to identify a reputable tax resolution firm or tax attorney, Rozbruch explains, is to “look beyond the ads and do your homework before you choose one - see which firms are willing to offer a wealth of free education first (on their websites, in articles and on a blog). That is a huge sign of trust.”

A lack of transparency and communication—an unwillingness to allow the consumer to participate in the decision-making—should send up a red flag. Reputable professionals will bring their clients into the process, giving them the information they need to be a partner in choosing the right tax relief option for them, Rozbruch says.

That principle, he goes on, has been the core of his business. “I have always set my company apart by serving consumers as an educator,” says Rozbruch. TRS’ extensive website features years of articles reflecting all facets of the tax laws and tax resolution process. Its award-nominated “Tax Resolution University,” a regularly updated blog, offers browser-friendly FAQs and the latest tax news. Rozbruch even created a tax resolution YouTube channel to talk to consumers in a more personal way. Before consumers even pick up the phone to call him, Rozbruch notes, they can have a well-grounded understanding of the tax delinquency process and their tax relief options.

“Consumers deserve to be empowered with education.” Rozbruch says. “One in six Americans has a tax problem. There is a solution to every problem, and it all starts with knowledge, which is so powerful when dealing with the IRS.”
