

Greetings from Michael Rozbruch

People ask me how I could love my job so much when taxes are so boring. I say it's because this is the most rewarding thing I have ever done in my life! I have worked in the business arena for more than thirty years, and in the decade that I have been running Tax Resolution Services, Co., I have helped save clients well in excess of $52 million and settled thousands of cases for an average of $.11 on the dollar.

I have saved people from financial crisis and helped them turn their lives around, so they can sleep at night and plan for a home and retirement for themselves and a future for their kids. That's why people in crisis seek us out. We are an emergency room for people for who have tax problems and need a tax expert in their corner. We know how scary it can be when the government contacts you and they are going to look through your files and the thought of prison looms over you. We take that fear away by knowing the Internal Revenue Service inside and out. Our average client has four to eleven years of unfiled tax returns. It's daunting, but fixable. There's a solution to every problem.

I have an extensive background in tax negotiation and mediation services, and am the author of the Tax Resolution University Blog and co-author of the e-book, Get the Guide to Tax Resolution: Solving IRS Problems. In 2009, I was featured in CPA Magazine as one of the top tax advisors in the nation and was honored as an Executive of the Year Finalist in the 2009 American Business Awards.

I believe that it is my duty to educate my clients and the public on ways to manage their personal and business finances. Through numerous speaking engagements, I have been fortunate to have the opportunity to help various organizations and individuals in solving their federal and state collection problems. Since 1998, I've saved my clients in excess of $52 million, and I look forward to empowering you and your audience with the same successful tax resolution solutions and strategies so you can begin to benefit from this powerful knowledge as well.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Best Wishes,

Michael Rozbruch, Founder and CEO of Tax Resolution Services
