

Meet the Tax Resolution Expert

Michael Rozbruch delivers practical insight and captivates audiences with his authoritative look inside the IRS. He also empowers people to know their taxpayer rights— and you have more rights than you are actually aware of!

This is why Michael believes that knowledge is power and the key to gaining a new lease on your financial life. Every year, hundreds of thousands (potentially millions) of taxpayers fail to file legally required tax returns. The act of not filing usually contributes to more significant problems with the passing of time. Regardless of what you have heard, you have the right to file your original tax return, no matter how late it's filed. If you owe taxes, the IRS or a state taxing authority can make your life miserable by filing a federal tax lien against you. Can you live on $179 a week? This is the amount you will have to live on if the IRS garnishes your paycheck.

Tax Resolution Services has an exceptional tax relief success rate. Michael's passion for educating and helping people in tax trouble is clear in his personable approach to speaking combined with his ability to engage audiences with a wealth of information from his extensive background in business tax and mediation services. He also shares inside tips and innovative ideas that audience members can immediately benefit from.

Michael and his firm have saved clients millions of dollars, just by advising, and strategizing with them on issues like penalty abatement, offer in compromise, and statute of limitations. These are just a few of Michael's powerful tax resolution tools, and he can help you use them to get out of debt. Featuring the Tax Expert on your show or at your event will keep your audiences talking for weeks and months afterwards.
