Tax Resolution Services, Co., CEO Honored with Prestigious National Recognition: Top Tax Advisor to Know During Recession

Nation's leading tax expert Michael Rozbruch has saved clients with IRS problems in excess of $40 million and is featured in CPA Magazine's profile of top CPAs in the nation.

Encino, CA – Tax Resolution Services, Co., founder and CEO Michael Rozbruch has been named one of the Top 40 Tax Advisors to Know During a Recession in the April/May 2009 issue of CPA Magazine. According to the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy, there are more than 646,520 CPAs in the nation. CPA Magazine invited every state society and national association of CPAs and accountants to nominate candidates.

Rozbruch's company provides affordable solutions to people seeking income tax relief and has saved clients in excess of $40 million since 1998. He has saved many of his clients up to 85% of their outstanding tax bill.

CPA Magazine asked their elite selection of influential CPAs for their best tax advice for clients during an economic downturn. Rozbruch advises clients with tax troubles in this recession to perform financial planning services in reverse.

"Resolving tax debt involves strategizing and re-positioning your finances to ensure as much success as possible in obtaining a tax debt settlement like an Offer in Compromise or a long-term IRS payment plan," said Rozbruch, the nation's leading tax negotiation and mediation expert. "An experienced tax professional can also place your account in 'Currently Not Collectible' so that you won't be placed under collection."

According to Rozbruch, if you owe a substantial amount to the IRS that you cannot afford to pay, you may be eligible for various tax breaks that the IRS is offering during these challenging economic times.

"The recession offers unprecedented opportunity for settling your back taxes and gaining a new lease on your financial life," Rozbruch said.
